- ✓ The 3800N pressure force allows working with thicker materials and larger projects. This makes the tool ideal for sealing windows, doors, bathrooms and other areas where a strong and stable seal is required
- ✓ The cordless gun eliminates the need for manual pressure, reducing hand fatigue during prolonged operation. This is a big advantage for professional applications or large-scale projects
- ✓ The tool is equipped with a comfortable and ergonomic handle that offers stability and comfort during work
- ✓ Precision and controlled feed speed ensure minimal loss of silicone or adhesive
- ✓ The machine comes without battery and charger
